Hi Lisa,

This letter does not circumvent the required petition. Previous petitions were submitted with this letter, but had insufficient signatures for Sycamore and Mansfield between Santa Monica Blvd & Romaine St. Citrus Av roadway does not continue through Romaine & Santa Monica. In order to have night restrictions on Sycamore and Mansfield, a qualified petition is still required.

The following restrictions were authorized and should be posted:

Orange Dr bet Romaine St & Santa Monica Bl has Tow Away No Parking 12 Midnight to 6AM on both sides.
Orange Dr bet Romaine St & Willoughby Ave has Tow Away No Parking 12 Midnight to 5AM on both sides.
Sycamore Av bet Romaine St & Willoughby Ave has Tow Away No Parking 12 Midnight to 6AM on both sides.
Mansfield Av bet Romaine St & Willoughby Ave has Tow Away No Parking 12 Midnight to 5AM on both sides.
Citrus Ave bet Romaine St & Willoughby Ave has Tow Away No Parking 12 Midnight to 5AM on both sides.

Dear Jeannie:

In an effort to move this proposed restriction forward, the constituency has provided me a letter from Captain Peter Zarcone indicating their (LAPD's) support for a change in parking restrictions on the following street segments:

Citrus Avenue
Sycamore Avenue
Orange Drive
Mansfield Avenue

These restrictions are necessary due to the large recreational vehicles (campers and trailers) which are dumping their septic tanks into the City's local storm drains.

Does this letter circumvent the requirement for the petition to the commercial tenants? Let me know what you require to move forward as the Hollywood Media BID would like to see a change in these parking requirements as soon as possible.

Thank you
